Special Thanks for God's blessing

We would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to David & Brenda Roy and family for their incredible generosity and dedication. Their willingness to give of their time, talents, and treasures has been such a blessing.

Through their hard work, new flooring is being installed in McFate, bringing a beautiful and much-needed upgrade to the building.

We are truly grateful for their servant hearts and commitment.

Peter K Frueh LLC for donation and delivery of stone to Camp Pinnacle which was very much needed. God has truly blessed us!

"You revive my drooping head, my cup brims with blessing. Your beauty and love chase after me every day of my life"

Psalms 23:5-6

Dear Pinnacle Family, Many times that I have read Psalm 23 verse five that talks about "my cup runs over" my mind wanders toward financial blessings, but God's blessings are so much more and can be in many areas of our lives.

For example, as of this past week, we have nearly 600 kids signed up for summer camp!

That is more than double from last year at this time.

Friends of Pinnacle have been volunteering, giving loads of stone, steel I-beams, furniture, tile, carpet, etc.

One close friend of Camp has redone all of the flooring in our McFate building, 20 rooms, the hallways and the foyer. God's blessings are amazing. Our cup truly runs over. Thank you Lord!

Thank you to ALL that support us and continue to pray for us!

Bloom where you are planted

A TRUE story from camp Pinnacle from days gone bye! Regardless of the age, staff and counselors included, the game of hide and seek was a fun time. Area parameters were set up which must be adhered to or the person or persons hiding outside the designated parameters would be automatically disqualified. The time limit was 30 minutes for the seeking team to find as many of those on the hiding team as possible. For each person on the hiding team the seekers found they would get a set number of points. After the initial 30 minutes period, the hiding team and seeking team would reverse positions with the seekers now the hiders and vice versa. Like the game of tag the seekers had to catch and touch the hider once they found them in order to get points.

During one of these events, the current seeking team needed only to find one more hider to win the game. With only a few minutes left in the game, one of the seekers noticed a hider half way up a very tall tree. The seeker called out to the rest of the team. They came running like beagles having treed a fox. They had to physically touch the hider when found for it to count. The hider refused to come down. That is when the seekers started to laugh saying you are about to come to us, we don't have to climb up to get you. The hider said it is not going to happen. The more the seekers began to laugh the more the hider up the tree wondered what they were laughing about.

All of the sudden the hider up the tree let out a loud "YIKES" and flew down the tree into the arms of the seekers. The hider hadn't noticed a PORCUPINE higher up the tree, now climbing down the tree, heading right toward the hider. The hider hated to let his team down by being caught, but the thought of those quills gave him chills. The seeker team laughed about their unexpected helper the rest of the camp season – and as you can see, still are many years later!
