Foreword

Christ — our Life

COLOSSIANS 3:4

The work of the Young Women's Bible Training Movement originated through a consciousness of the great need for a simple, direct knowledge of God's Word and the proving of His power to young womanhood.

This movement was founded upon God's promise: My God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:19

During the years of its existence numbers have heard the call of God and "followed the Lamb." May its history ever be: that young women learn to know the Eternal God, Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, and the Bible; learn the power of prayer; and become winners of souls for the Lord Jesus Christ.

"Lord crucified, give me a heart like Thine,
Teach me to love the dying souls around;
Keep Thou my heart in closest touch with Thee,
And give me love, pure Calvary love,
To win the lost to Thee."

HISTORY

THE history of the Young Women's Bible Training Movement dates back to 1912, when it was organized by a group of young women, who had become interested in Bible study at the Young Women's Summer Camp, Altamont, N. Y. The object of this organization was to help young women make an earnest and thorough study of the Bible with the purpose of preparing them for Christian leadership at home and in foreign lands.

A room was rented for this purpose in Albany, N. Y., and attractively fitted up as a class room. This, however, proved inadequate and it was found necessary to secure larger quarters. In the autumn of 1913, a house was rented at 107 Columbia St., Albany, N. Y., where the work could have more opportunity for growth. A two-year course of Bible study was planned, including two terms each year. The Lord met every need and in due time, in answer to prayer, the house was purchased as a permanent school. In the spring of 1922, it was again found necessary to seek larger accommodations. A residence at 281 State St., Albany, N. Y., was found available and could be altered to meet the need. It was purchased in exchange for the house at 107 Columbia St., and a mortgage of $20,000.00. This building proved satisfactory until the fall of 1926, when again there was not sufficient room for the young women desiring to attend the school. This lack was met by renting a house on Dove St. near the school for the winter of 1926. The next year a flat was rented for the same purpose, until finally the house adjoining 281 State St. was placed on the market. Although there was still a mortgage of approximately $10,000.00 on 281 State St., it was felt keenly the will of the Lord to take this step of faith in purchasing the building at 283 State St. for the sum of $42,500.00, thus necessitating, after the receipt of several gifts, the assuming of a mortgage of $48,300.00. The Lord has graciously reduced this mortgage by gifts large and small to a little less than $15,000.00.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Bible School is to train young women to proclaim the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ by life and testimony: first, by giving them a clear, direct knowledge of the Bible as the inspired Word of God; second, by teaching them how to get messages from the Lord through the Word by the power of the Holy Spirit; third, to lead them on in the secrets of the prayer life; and last, by having them take part in evangelistic and other forms of Christian service. This training aims to equip them for leadership in home and foreign lands.

BASIS OF TEACHING

The divine inspiration of the Bible.

The deity of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The power of His Cross to save lives from the penalty and the power of sin.

The indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit as the power for Christian living and service.

The pre-millennial coming of our Lord.

COURSE

The course of study at Bible School covers a period of two years or more, according to the preparation and ability of the student.

CERTIFICATE

Certificates are awarded to those attending the classes and passing the required examinations.

Graduates recommended by the Board of Directors of the Bible School, as to Christian character and ability, are accepted by Mission Boards.

CURRICULUM

The curriculum of the Bible School embraces the following subjects:

General Survey of the Bible

This is an outline study of the books of the Bible, tracing the blood redemption from Genesis through Revelation.

Life of Christ

The aim of this study is to help the student to become better acquainted with the Lord Jesus Christ through His life, death and resurrection. A close following of the teachings of Jesus, as applied to the daily life of the Christian, is also emphasized. Special attention is given to Christ's methods of work.

Acts

This study treats of the Holy Spirit as the Executive of the Godhead in the present dispensation, taking as the basis His manifestation through the lives of the apostles and the early disciples.

Bible Atlas

This is a study of Bible lands and surrounding nations.

Church History

History of the Christian Church from the apostolic days until the present time.

History of Missions

This is a study of the missionary enterprise from the ascension of Jesus Christ to the present day, covering biographical sketches and a history of missionary movements throughout the world.

Gospel Singing and Conducting

The music course aims to prepare students for Gospel and Evangelistic work. Training in Voice, Piano, Harmony and Conducting will be given. Two years' course required by all students.

Homiletics

Studies in preparing addresses, using texts, studying books, manner of delivery, how to use illustrations, etc.

English

This course is required of all students who are not high school graduates. It consists of a working knowledge of grammar and of composition.

Pentateuch

This is an analytical study of the five books, noting the typical teachings and the symbolism.

Old Testament History

God's chosen people, as seen called, entering, conquering and possessing the promised land, and necessarily includes Ancient History.

Old Testament Prophecy

God's dealings with Israel and the nations, the incarnation and coming again of the Lord Jesus Christ. Prophecy in relation to past, present and future events.

Bible Doctrine

This course in Bible Doctrine includes the Doctrines of God, Personality, Spirituality, Attributes; the Doctrine of Christ, Person, Work, Priesthood; the Doctrines of Salvation, Grace, Repentance, Faith, Conversion, Regeneration, Justification, Sanctification; the Doctrine of Man, Origin, Fall, Redemption, Destiny; the Doctrine of the Church, its Beginning, Function, Ordinances, Mission; the Doctrine of the Scriptures, Inspiration and Authority; the Doctrine of Last Things, the Second Coming of Christ, Resurrection of the Dead, Final Judgment, Kingdom of God. Two years' course.

Epistles

This subject is studied in connection with the Book of Acts and deals with the revelation, the calling out, and the building up of the Body of Christ.

Daniel

The Book of Daniel is studied in its individual chapters with its teachings of the Times of the Gentiles, the Restoration of the Jews, and the coming Millennial Kingdom.

Revelation

The Book of Revelation is viewed from the futurist standpoint with its teachings on the future of the Church, the Jews, the coming of Christ and the Millennial Kingdom.

Normal Methods in Bible Teaching

This course aims to give the student methods in Bible teaching, teacher training, child training, story telling and Sunday School methods.

Personal Evangelism

Personal Evangelism has to do with the qualifications of the personal worker and with his use of the Scriptures in dealing with individuals, meeting their difficulties and objections, and leading the unsaved to a saving knowledge of Christ, and Christians into their possessions in Christ. Various false cults of Christendom are briefly examined.

Sunday School Teachers' Class

This course meets the need of all students teaching in Sunday Schools by thoroughly discussing the Sunday School lesson for the following Sunday.

New Testament Greek

This subject aims to give the foundation of Greek grammar in order that the students may read the New Testament in Greek. The first year covers the translation of the first epistle of John.

Practical Work

In connection with the theory learned in the class room, the students are assigned practical work, such as: Leading

Prayer Groups; Superintending and Teaching Rural Sunday Schools; Visiting in Homes and Hospitals; Assisting in Factory Meetings; Helping in Evangelistic Meetings and Conferences in Cities and Rural Districts; Distributing Gospels and Tracts. A certain amount of practical work is required of all students.

Camp Pinnacle affords abundant opportunity to the students for personal soul-winning and other practical work.

While in training, students are urged to attend a church of their own denomination.

ACCOMMODATIONS AND EXPENSE

There are accommodations at the Bible School for a limited number of students. Board and lodging, $10.50 per week. One hour a day practical work in the home is required of all students. Each worker and student is expected to provide herself with a cot cover, blankets, sheets, pillow-cases, towels, napkins and napkin-ring. Students will supply their own books and stationery.

No tuition is charged. The Bible School has no endowment or other fixed source of income; aside from board receipts and Young Women's Bible Training Movement mite box offerings, it is supported by voluntary gifts.

Board to be paid in advance.

School year covers thirty weeks—September 30, 1930 to April 28, 1931.

See Pages 20 and 21*

LECTURES

A series of lectures on Biblical and Prophetical subjects will be given by Rev. David Miller.

Rev. Max Wertheimer, a converted Jewish rabbi, will give a course of lectures on the Pentateuch, emphasizing its typology.

Other lectures will be announced later.

PRAYER LIFE AT BIBLE SCHOOL

We are praying the Lord to use the Y. W. B. T. M. as an evangelistic, missionary and Bible-giving agency in hastening a "World-wide Revival."

The day at Bible School begins with the Morning Watch fifteen minutes before breakfast. Morning prayers are held immediately after breakfast, led by members of the faculty and students. This is followed by a time of intercession for the needs of the world.

A quiet hour is observed from 1 to 2 P. M. daily.

The evening prayer and praise service follows directly after supper for one-half hour. Members of the faculty and visiting speakers usually give the message in the evening.

Each Monday morning is given wholly to prayer and intercession. Individual problems and all needs of the work are brought before the Lord at this time.

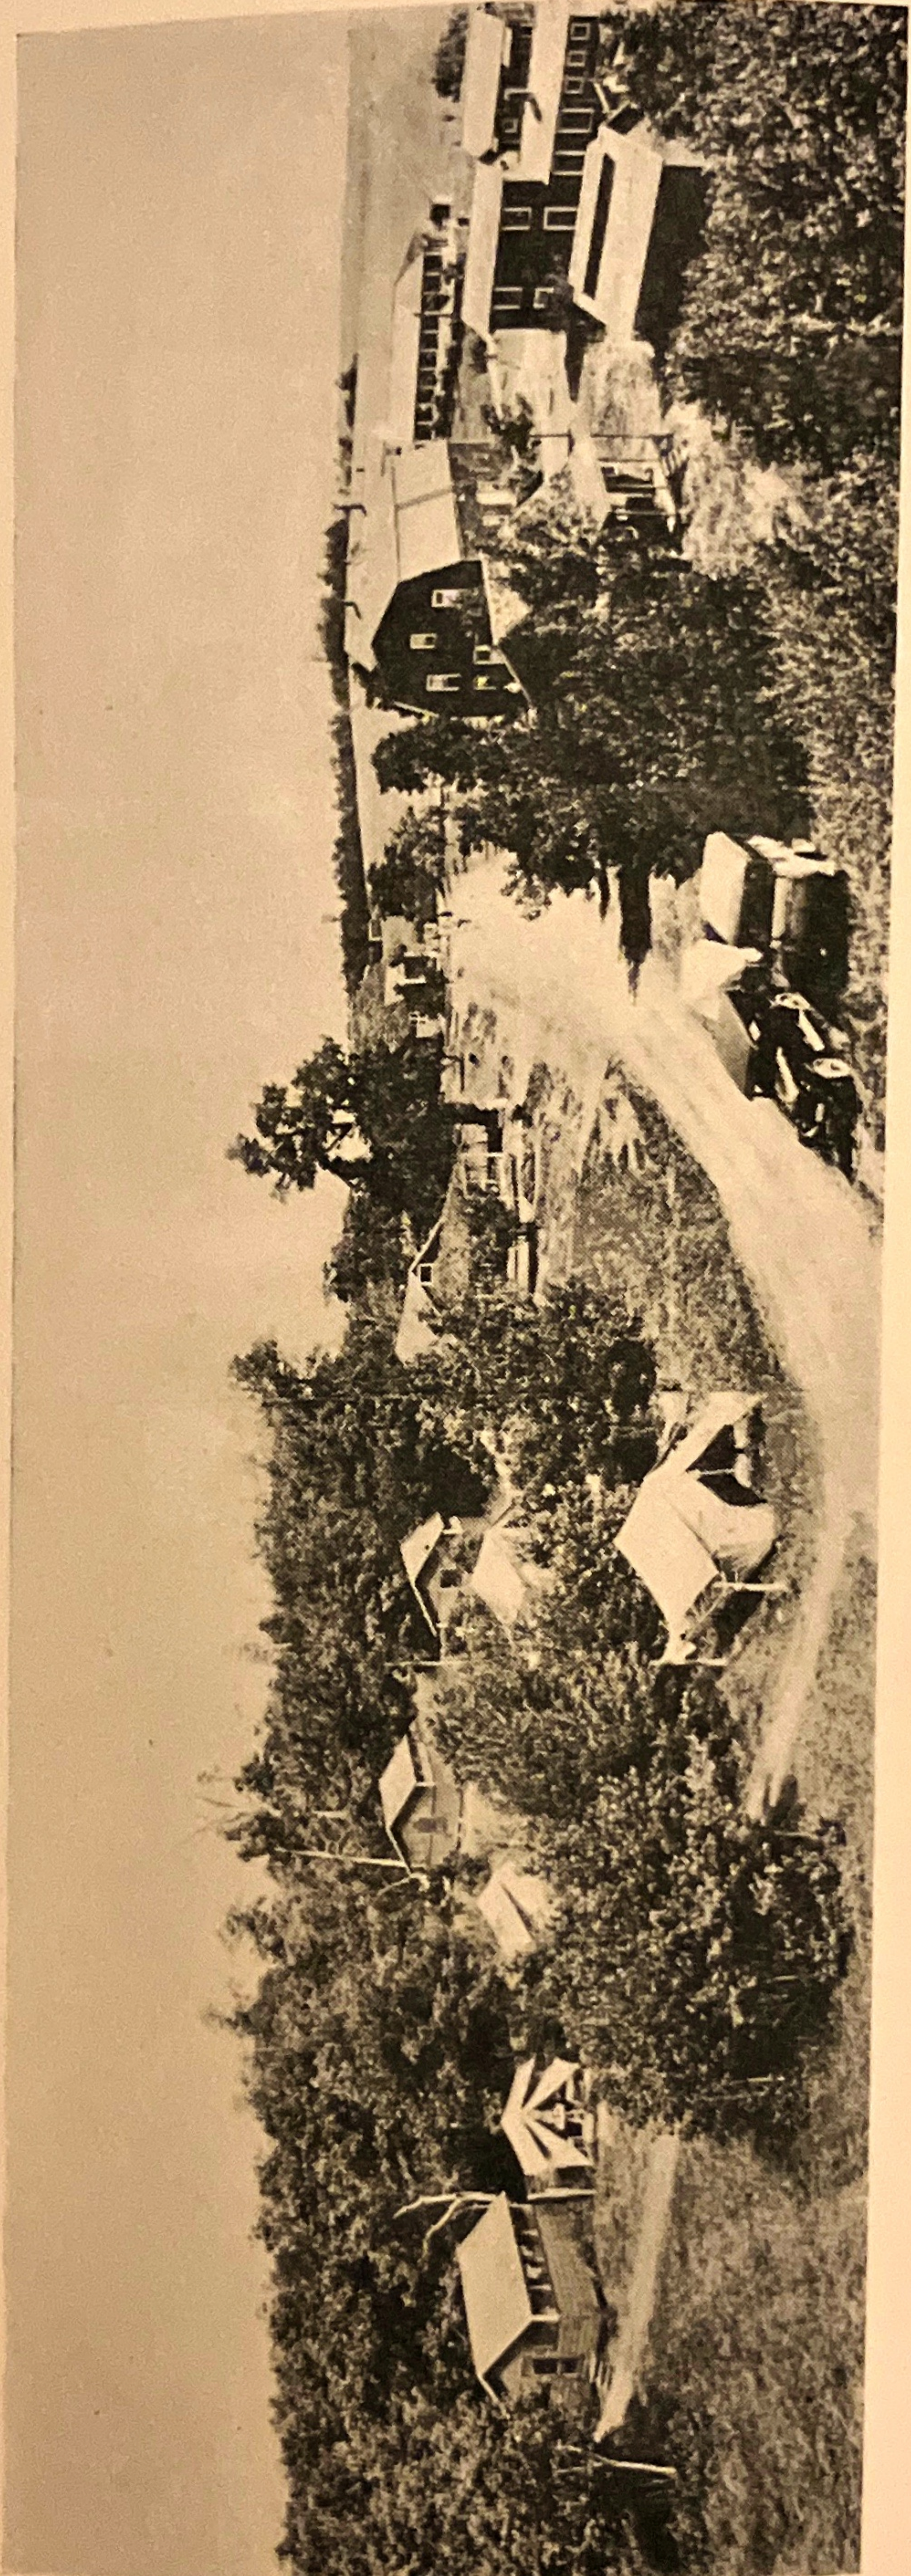

Saturday at 11:30 A. M. a special Y. W. B. T. M. prayer group is held.

Prayer groups are held regularly for extension centers and different phases of the work.

A missionary prayer group is held every Sunday at 5:30 P. M. At this time the different countries and missionaries are brought to the Lord in prayer.

CAMP PINNACLE

YOUNG WOMEN'S BIBLE TRAINING MOVEMENT

The purpose of the Young Women's Bible Training Movement is to lift up Jesus Christ as the power of God unto salvation, and, relying on the leadership of the Holy Spirit, to seek to develop Christian character in young women through the study of the Bible and to help them into service for Christ.

MEMBERSHIP PLEDGE

Loving the Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity and desiring to be associated with the work of the Young Women's Bible Training Movement in giving a knowledge of the Bible to others, I hereby sign my name.

Mite boxes are given to each member. The money received from these goes toward general expenses of the work.

QUARTERLY LETTER

In order to keep the members of the Y. W. B. T. M. and friends of the Bible School and Camp in touch with the home and foreign work, a quarterly letter is issued.

CENTERS OF WORK

The Bible School in Albany and Camp Pinnacle, Helderberg Mountains, R. F. D., Voorheesville, N. Y., are the chief centers of work of the Y. W. B. T. M.

Work at the Bible School is supplemented at Camp Pinnacle.

The purpose of the Camp is that girls and young women may know Christ as the power to save and keep them from sin, and that they may hear and obey God's call for service to the world; also that they may have a happy, healthful vacation.

Sunday Schools

There are eighteen million children in the United States who are not in any Sunday School. The Y. W. B. T. M. has desired to help in this work and, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, Sunday Schools are being carried on in the following centers:

Aquetuck	Deane's Mills	North Coeymans
Athenia, N. J.	Elizabeth, N. J.	Plainfield, N. J. (2)
Bethlehem Center	Garfield, N. J.	Rock
Callanan's Corners	Houck's Corners	Schodack Landing
Cedar Hill	Jericho	Bethel (Albany)
Couse	Jersey City, N. J. (2)
Clifton, N. J.	Normansville

Most of these are rural districts near Albany and are manned by Bible School teachers, workers, and students. These schools not only meet the need of the people but also serve as splendid home mission stations for the training of students. Those farther away are carried on by Y. W. B. T. M. young women who caught the vision at Camp Pinnacle or Bible School.

“I hear the voice
Of One Who calleth,
Calleth sweet and clear,
For men to reap for Him
A harvest white.
Oh! soul of mine, rise up and answer Him
Before the night,
The long night falleth,
And the day be gone, thy day be gone.”
